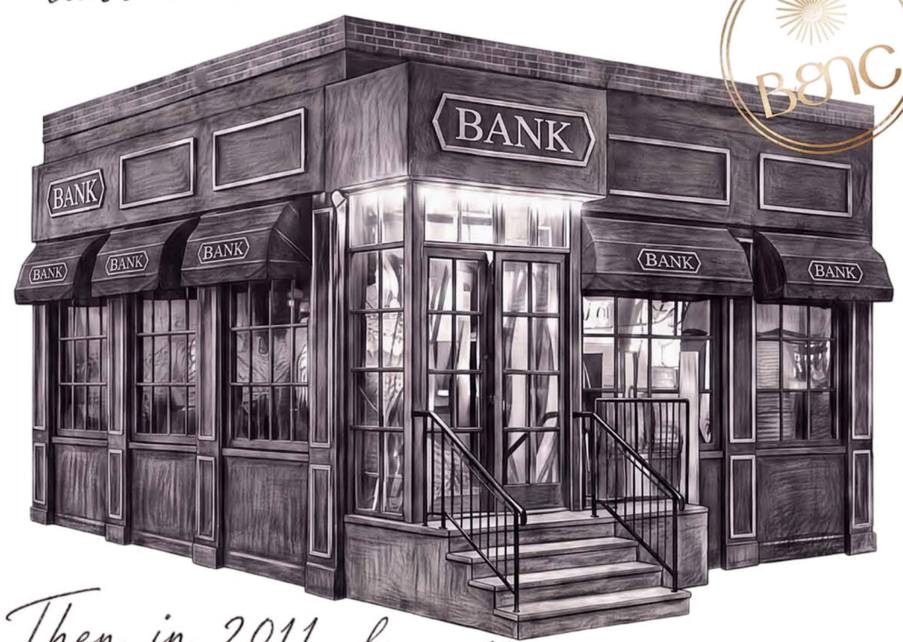
Where it all began.

A corner in London once a Barclays bank, until it closed its doors in 2000.

For eleven years it stood empty; inside, rows of old bottles gathered dust in the dark.



Then in 2011, from that forgotten bank, BANC was born.

And from these bricks, a journey began...

...and the journey led here.

In 2025, that same spirit crossed continents and found a new home in Dubai.

The old bank's soul, reborn beneath desert skies — bolder, brighter, yet faithful to where it all began.

From London to Dubai, the story continues.
